

MELENG TEA ESTATE

SHORT STORIES ABOUT OUR MELENG TEA ESTATE

Meleng Tea Estate is situated near Jorhat, the cultural capital of Assam. The factory is just 7 Km. away from the national Highway of Sivasagar to Guwahati .It is directly connected with the NH-37 by a smooth photogenic Road .it is situated on the bank of Meleng River in the west, Gohain Gaon & Changmai Gaon is in the east, NH-37 is in the north and south is covered by Gibbon wildlife Sanctuary .The Gibbon wildlife Sanctuary is specially known for Hollock Gibbon.

The Meleng Tea Estate is a thickly populated estate .It was established in the year of 1852 by Shri J.E.Todd and it was later on managed by M/S. Balmer Lawrie & Co Ltd. as the managing agent till 1969.

The M/s. Jay Shree Tea & Industries Limited bought this property from them in 1969 and improved its manifold in terms of quality and quantity. At the time of takeover the crop was meager 6 lac kgs. This stands to a healthy 14.50 Lac Kgs. Presently it is producing one of the finest special Orthodox, well appreciated by overseas buyers to the extent that you will find its name in lot of catalogues of German /Swiss picketers.

The estate consists of four divisions with best possible medical facility at the estate level. The Company is always in free front for social work and takes adequate case for the well being of its work force.

It's a joy to visit this estate where you can see the oldest section (105 yrs old) flourishing with youngest area.